HELEN NOBLE Celebrant of Surrey IMAGINATION IS YOUR ONLY LIMIT

Helen Noble – for Celebrant

As an Independent Celebrant, I am neither a Priest nor a Registrar - and as such am not bound by any legalities or restrictions. This enables you to have freedom through-out your wedding ceremony - or any occasion or rite of passage you wish to mark. Your ceremony is the anchor of the day and your wedding vows should be your founding words of your marriage, so it is such a special thing to be able to write and say your own wedding vows. As a Celebrant it's an absolute pleasure and honour for me to be part of that with you both - by creating, writing and delivery your entire wedding ceremony.

For you, it means you know the person taking this important life event for you, you have a ceremony you helped create, A full rehearsal - at the venue if we can, Support and guidance in choosing ANY reading or song lyrics or Poems (So religious based words are perfectly acceptable). You can have ANY song/music to walk into/out to etc, Guidance in writing your wedding vows, a copy of the script and one re write should you chose to make some changes, plus any last minuet tweaks so that it can be exactly what you both wish.

I will also do you a wedding certificate a 'Signing' if you wish plus, I only ever book ONE wedding so you have me exclusively - (If we have to wait for great Aunt Vera, or a cloud to pass etc....) I have a back ground in theatre, events management and religious studies so mixed faith weddings, or dual heritage ceremonies are something I am very happy to do.

Please call or email or message me - I would love to hear from you .....
